

Products

Mature Compost

A soil conditioner, which has the following benefits:

- Increases carbon in the soil.
- Increases Micro-organisms for soil health.
- Beneficial for nutrient uptake by the plants

How to use Mature Compost:

-  1. Spread over the ground 20 – 40 mm.
-  2. Dig in.
-  3. Water.
-  4. Plant.

Typical Analysis %

- Nitrogen (N) 1.2 – 2.0,
- Phosphorus (P) 0.2 – 0.3,
- Potassium (K) 0.4 – 0.8,
- Calcium (Ca) 2 – 3.

Health Warning:

This product contains microorganisms

- Avoid Breathing Dusts or Mists
- Wear Particulate Mask if Dusty
- Wear Gloves and Keep Product Moist when Handling
- Wash Hands Immediately After Use
- For further information, refer to the material safety data sheet available on our website.

Pasteurised Mulch

A garden mulch that has gone through a natural heat treatment to prevent weeds germinating.

How to use Pasteurised Mulch:

-  1. Spread to 40-60 mm thickness over the required area.

Composted Coarse Mulch

A woody mulch that has been through the composting process and is ideally suited to mulching under trees and bushes.

How to use Coarse Mulch:

-  1. Spread to 60-70 mm thickness over the required area.

Standard No.: AS4454.2012
Licence No.: SMK41174
SAI Global